Detailed Action

The ADS submitted 12/22/04 incorrectly claims benefit for provisional application 60/049,980 rather than the correct serial number 60/138,999.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Deng et al. (US 6,713,286) or (US 6,764,676) or (2004/0096460).

Applicants claim an isolated antibody that binds specifically to a feline immunodeficiency virus (FIV) protein, wherein said isolated antibody is produced in a mammal in response to a polypeptide encoded by SEQ ID NO: 1 from nt 1 to nt 9464. SEQ ID NO:1 is the genomic sequence from FIV strain FIV-141.

Deng et al. (US 6,713,286, see whole document, particularly column 3, lines 47-57; column 9, lines 1-21; column 10, lines 53-67; column 11, lines 1-33) and (US 6,764,676, see whole document, particularly column 3, lines 52-62; column 9, lines 19-36; column 10, lines 1-5; column 11, lines 27-67 and column 12, lines 17-24) and (2004/0096460, see whole document, particularly paragraphs [0012], [0016], [0050], [0051], [0056]-[0059]) all disclose antibodies to the FIV-141 strain. Deng et al. therefore teach the claimed invention.

Art Unit: 1636

The applied references have a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the references, they constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Any rejections not repeated in this Office Action are withdrawn.

No Claims are allowed.
